

Erin Krol bio

Erin Krol, MSW, LICSW has been the Eligibility Coordinator for the Northeast Region of the Department of Developmental Services (DDS) for the past two years, guiding applicants and their families through the eligibility process. Prior to working at DDS, she was a clinical social worker for the Department of Public Health for 6 years, helping to develop and work on a specialized inpatient unit for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Erin also spent 13 years with the Department of Mental Health as a service coordinator for adults with major mental illness.